ABOUT ANSWER CARDS

Hello my name is Ani Ipradjian I am a professional coffee cup reader, thought time I have helped so many people with guidance, decisions, direction in there lives. This inspired me to create also design a deck of cards Future Life Love Answer Cards.

I have spent years creating Future Life Love Answer Cards you could even call it my life's work. Throughout time I kept notes and this helped me decided what cards to choose for the deck. Sometimes we have so many questions that we want answered in our lives and this drew me closer to the cards I created for this deck.

Thought the years I have read so may coffee cups and offered intuitive readings, I could see that so many people need guidance, direction and answers to help them make decisions which road to take in life. Sometime we need guided advice to guide us on the right paths and help understand what obstacles may be in our way.

Featuring 54 Oracle Cards that will offer you guided advice and answers to your questions. The Answer Cards are very easy to use; each card has its own interpretation written on the back of the card making it a quick and easy interactive read. Answer cards can be used for daily readings, quick answers and advice to any questions you may have on your mind.

All you need to do is ask a question out loud or in your mind as you are shuffling the deck, you can either pick a card at any time after a few shuffles or if a card jumps out of the deck during the shuffling then I suggest you use that card.

All you need to do then is read the answer to your question on the back of the card you have chosen.

Future life Love Answer Cards are special because unlike other cards you do not need to do any spreads. Just pick one card at a time that will bring you closer to the answers or advice you have been searching for.

One of my true passions and calling in life is art. So I combined my 2 gifts together coffee cup reading and art to create each card that has luscious textures, shapes, colour combinations that encapsulate Australia's landscapes and native flora. Every piece of art that is placed Future Life Love Answer Cards is inspired by The Australian Landscape.

All colours and designs are carefully planned, painted and each piece of art has its own purpose. All artwork, graphics and writing on the cards are done by myself © Ani Ipradjian.

Previously working in the print industry I knew what vision I had for Future Life Love Answer Cards finished product so I spent a lot of time sourcing a printers from around Australia as I am self publishing my own deck and choosing the size of the deck was just as important because my primary goal was to make Future Life Love Answer cards a certain size so you can place it in your bag and use it when needed.
